Chapter 2 Councils

Section 1

Capital, Provincial, Municipal, District and Khan Councils

Article 14

The Capital, Province, Municipality, District and Khan shall have its council which is indirectly elected in accordance with procedures provided in the Law on Elections of the Capital council, Provincial council, Municipal council, District council and Khan council which is referred in this law as "Council".

Article 15

A council shall have a mandate of five (05) years, which shall end when the new council takes office.

The mandate of the council shall take effect from the day of the elections of the councils and shall end on the day of the next elections.

Article 16

Pending the new council taking office, the expired council shall have only the right to take care of daily administrative affairs.

Article 17

Each council shall have a chairperson.

The chairperson of the council shall be the candidate on the top of the candidate list which occupies the most seats of the council.

In the event that the candidate lists occupy an equal number of seats of the council, the candidate on the top of the candidate list which receives the highest number of valid votes shall be selected as the chairperson of the council

Article 18

The number of Councillors of each council shall be determined based on demographic and geographic factors as follows:

- The Phnom Penh Capital Council shall have a maximum of twenty one (21) councillors;
- A Provincial council shall have from nine (09) to twenty one (21) Councillors;
- A Municipal council shall have from seven (07) to fifteen (15) Councillors;
- A District council and a Khan council shall have from seven (07) to nineteen (19) Councillors.

The actual number of Councillors of each council shall be determined by sub-decree based on a request of the Minister of the Ministry of Interior at least one hundred and twenty (120) days before the end of a council's mandate.

In the event that there is no sub-decree determining the number of Councillors for the next mandate, the total number of Councillors for each council shall be the total number of the old council.

Article 19

Each council shall represent and act on behalf of all citizens living within its jurisdiction.

Article 20

- Having Khmer citizenship from birth;

- Having reached at least twenty five (25) years of age on the day of the elections;
- Being entitled to vote and having sufficient qualifications as per conditions set by the law on elections of the councils.

Article 22

A councillor shall lose his/her membership of the council if any of the following cases occur:

- He/she loses qualifications and conditions to stand for the election of the council;
- He/she resigns from the council by submitting a written letter of resignation to the chairperson of the council;
- He/she passes away;
- He/she fails to attend the ordinary meeting of the council more than two (02) times consecutively without prior authorization;
- He/she is dismissed from being a councillor in accordance with a law, procedure, internal rule or code of ethics of the council;
- He/she is convicted by a court for a criminal or misdemeanor offence;
- He/she loses membership of his/her political party.

The Minister of the Ministry of Interior shall decide and announce the losing of membership in the council in the above cases.

Article 23

When a councillor loses his/her membership in the council, the candidate next in order to him/her on the same candidate list shall be selected for replacement not later than fourteen (14) days by a Prakas of the Minister of the Ministry of Interior.

Article 24

If any council acts against any provision of the Constitution, law or sub-decree, the Minister of the Ministry of Interior shall issue a written instruction to that council to respect and follow those provisions within a specific and reasonable period of time.

If the council fails to respect the instruction, the Royal Government shall dissolve the council by a sub-decree based on a request of the Minister of the Ministry of Interior.

Article 25

The National Election Committee "NEC" shall organize a by-election to elect a council due to one of the following cases:

- Where the Province, Municipality, District and Khan is newly established as per Article 6 and 7 of this law, a by-election shall be organized within a period of two hundred and forty (240) days;

- Where the council is dissolved based on a condition of Article 24 of this Law, a by-election shall be organized within a period of one hundred and twenty (120) days.

The council established by the by-election shall have a mandate which is equal to the remaining mandate of the dissolved council.

Article 26

The by-election shall not be permitted if the remaining mandate of the council is less than one hundred and eighty (180) days.

Article 27

In the event that a council is dissolved, the Minister of the Ministry of Interior shall take measures to take over management until the new council takes office.

Article 28

The councillors in office shall receive remuneration, for which provision shall be made in the annual budget of the council.

The remuneration shall be defined by a sub-decree based on a request of the Minister of the Ministry of Interior and the Minister of the Ministry of Economy and Finance.

Section 2 Roles, Duties and Authorities of the Council

Article 29

The council shall have roles to undertake activities necessary to achieve the purpose of establishing, promoting and sustaining democratic development and to perform functions and duties that have been assigned and delegated to it through this Law or in accordance with this Law.

Article 30

The council shall have the authority to make legislative and executive decisions.

Article 31

The council shall perform functions and duties through decisions made in its meeting and shall ensure that the decisions are executed.

Article 32

The council shall apply its legislative power through the issuance of bylaw (Deika) in accordance with provisions of Section 3, Chapter 2 of this Law.

Article 33

The council shall apply its executive power through the issuance of decisions in the council meeting.

Article 34

The council shall be accountable directly to all citizens for making decisions on priorities and for ensuring democratic development within its jurisdiction.

The council may conduct a survey on any matter that the council finds important for the citizens it represents, and may disseminate the results of the survey and give instruction for implementation to the board of governors and governor.

Article 35

The council shall be accountable to the Royal Government for following the Constitution, laws, royal decrees, sub-decrees and legal instruments.

Article 36

At every meeting, the council shall make necessary decisions or bylaws (Deika) on issues relating to:

- Preparation for receiving new functions, duties and resources in accordance with this Law;
- Obligatory functions of the council;
- Permissive functions of the council;
- Three-year (3) rolling investment program and five-year (5) development plan of the council including those components of those plans which are under the management and control of joint councils, other categories of the councils, government ministries and institutions and other stakeholders;

- Other financial issues;
- Establishment of structures, systems and resources including committees, units and personnel of the council;
- Management and use of assets;
- Consultation process with the public within its jurisdiction and dissemination of information to citizens;
- Other duties which are determined by laws, royal decrees, sub-decrees and other legal instruments in accordance with this law.

Article 37

The council shall formulate and approve a five-year (5) development plan to be updated annually through a three (3) year rolling investment program.

Article 38

In the formulation and implementation of its development plan, the council shall consult with:

- The citizens within its jurisdiction;

- Other categories of council within its jurisdiction;
- Relevant ministries, institutions and units of the Royal Government;
- Relevant stakeholders.

Procedures for consultations in the development planning process of the sub-national administrations shall be defined by a sub-decree based on a request of the Minister of the Ministry of Interior following consultation with the Ministry of Planning and other relevant ministries and institutions.

Article 39

A council shall formulate its development plan that includes:

- The vision of the council which indicates the goals and objectives for development within its jurisdiction;
- Assessment of the level of existing development status within its jurisdiction and the assessment of the priority development needs in respect to the following:
 - + Needs of the council in preparing to receive the transfer of new functions, duties and resources;
 - + Basic and necessary services, facilities, materials and public infrastructure;
 - + Reduction of poverty;
 - + Other needs of women, men, youth, children and vulnerable groups including poor people and indigenous people.
- A development framework which describes basic principles for the use and management of land and natural resources in that area;
- A disaster management plan;
- A financial plan which includes a capital development plan, a twelve-month (12) budget plan from the time of formulating the plan and a three-year (3) budget plan from the time of formulating the plan which will be updated annually;
- A strategy for the implementation of the council's development plan to ensure transparency and accountability to all citizens within its jurisdiction;
- Key performance indicators and targets related to development objectives and priorities within the development plan.

The council shall separate their permissive and obligatory functions in the development and budget plan.

The actual formalities and procedures for the formulation, management and implementation of development plan of the sub-national administrations shall be defined by a sub-decree based on a request of the Minister of the Ministry of Interior following consultation with the Ministry of Planning and other relevant ministries and institutions.

Article 40

The council shall monitor and evaluate annually the implementation of the development plan of the council, including those components of the plan which are under the management and control of:

- Joint councils
- Other categories of council;
- Relevant ministries, institutions and units of the Royal Government;
- Relevant stakeholders.

Article 41

Immediately upon approval of the development plan, the council shall post the plan in public.

The public can look at the plan at the office of the council free of charge or may purchase the plan from the council at original cost.

Article 42

The council shall manage public financial affairs for the promotion of democratic development and focus on the most important development needs that include:

- Needs of the sub-national administrations in preparing to receive the transfer of new functions, duties and resources;
- Basic and necessary services, facilities, materials and public infrastructures;
- Reduction of poverty;
- Other needs of women, youth, children and vulnerable groups including poor people and indigenous people.

Article 43

The council shall manage its financial affairs in a way that is transparent and accountable to all its citizens.

Article 44

The Capital, Provincial, Municipal and District councils shall have their own budget which is referred to as budget of the sub-national administrations.

Khan and Sangkat in the Capital shall have their budget in the budget of the Capital.

Sangkat in a Municipality shall have its budget in the budget of the Municipality.

The council shall approve its budget in accordance with the procedures and calendar of the annual state budgeting.

The council shall approve the medium term expenditure plan and shall update it every year.

The management and implementation of annual budget plans shall follow the Law on Financial Regime and the Management of Assets of the Sub-national Administrations, to be enacted in accordance with this Law and the Law on Public Financial System.

Budgets shall be prepared following all important principles of the management of public finance.

Budgets of the sub-national administrations shall be balanced between revenues and expenditures.

Article 45

In the management of its financial affairs, the council shall follow standards, rules, systems and procedures related to:

- Preparation, approval and implementation of budget;
- Accounting and reporting;
- Assets and liabilities;
- Transparency and accountability;
- Management:
 - + Own revenues;
 - + Shared revenues, funds transferred from the national budget and service fees for the implementation of functions as an agency of ministries and institutions of the Royal Government.
 - + Revenues from other sources.
- Public procurement;
- Internal audit;
- External audit;
- Other requirements related to public finances.

Standards, rules, systems and procedures for management of public finances of the sub-national administrations shall be defined by the Law on Financial Regime and the Management of Assets of the Sub-national Administrations, to be enacted in accordance with this Law and the Law on Public Financial System based on a request of the Minister of the Ministry of Interior and the Minister of the Ministry of Economy and Finance.

Article 46

The sub-national administration shall be responsible for the effective management and utilization of state assets transferred to it or procured from its own means.

Procedures for the management of assets of the sub-national administrations shall be defined by a law and relevant legal instruments based on a request of the Minister of the Ministry of Interior and the Minister of the Ministry of Economy and Finance.

Article 47

In the event that there is any abuse of power within its jurisdiction, the council shall report in writing immediately to the Minister of the Ministry of Interior.

Article 48

The abuse of power occurs, and cannot be justified, when an elected councillor or a person appointed by a ministry, institution, state agency, council or any person intentionally :

- Uses their position or authority to exploit or mistreat any person, group of persons, public assets or public resources;
- Fails to use his/her roles or power to prevent any person under his/her supervision when he/she is aware that that person has exploited or mistreated any person, group of persons, public assets or resources.

Article 49

The abuse of power is applicable to the following activities:

- Abuse of legal rights or human rights of any person;
- Illegal occupation or confiscation of public or private assets or natural resources for his/her own individual benefit;
- Damage to the environment and natural resources;
- Illegal withdrawal of state funds or assets or improper use of state assets;
- Illegal request for or receiving money or gifts for taking action or not taking action on any official duties under his/her responsibilities;
- Irregular implementation of laws or royal decrees or sub-decrees or Prakas;
- Irregular implementation of bylaws (Deika) of the council;

Article 50

The council shall prepare and approve annual reports related to:

- Bylaws and decisions that have been issued;
- Activities that have been implemented;
- Financial reporting;
- Performance evaluation of the board of governors and officials of the council;
- Results of monitoring and evaluation as provided for in Article 40 of this law;
- Necessary measures to improve the performance of the council.

The council shall check and approve the above annual report not later than forty five (45) days after the end of the year.

Article 51

The council shall create favorable conditions for the public when disseminating public information on reports, agenda of meetings, minutes of meeting, bylaw, laws, royal decrees, sub-decrees and Prakas relating to the council and other documents of the council.

Article 52

Each council shall have a public information board or other means of information dissemination at its main office and in other places within its jurisdiction that are easily accessed by citizens for public information.

Section 3 Bylaws (Deika) of the Council

Article 53

Bylaw is a legal rule approved by the council.

Based on the provisions of this law, the council shall apply its legislative power through decisions to issue bylaws as necessary.

Article 54

Bylaws of the council shall have the scope to determine, prohibit or oversee activities, procedures, or any works under the scope of functions, duties and resources of the council including:

- Roles, duties and authorities of the council;
- Functions or duties assigned to the council;
- Functions or duties delegated to the council in the event that the delegation did not take away partly or fully the authority to issue bylaws;
- Any affairs that this law, other laws, royal decrees, sub-decrees or Prakas require the council to issue bylaws.

Article 55

Bylaws that are issued by the council shall be executed and enforced within its jurisdiction as a whole except when it provides otherwise or when any law requires the exclusion from bylaw of an area with a clear demarcated boundary.

Article 56

A bylaw that is approved by the council shall come into effect on the date the council issues it.

A bylaw may identify a future date of effectiveness for either part of the bylaw or the bylaw in full.

A bylaw cannot be retroactive and cannot come into effect prior to the date on which the bylaw was approved and publicized.

Article 57

Any bylaw that is against any provision of the constitution, laws, royal decrees or sub-decree shall be invalid.

Article 58

Any bylaw which discriminates against an individual, or a specific group of persons, based on factors of race, religion, sex, age, color, nationality, nationality at birth or mental or physical disability shall be invalid.

Article 59

A bylaw may make provisions for monetary fines for contravention or non-observance of one or more provisions of that bylaw.

Procedures for preparing provisions on monetary fines of bylaws of the council and the level of the fine shall be determined by a sub-decree based on a request of the Minister of the Ministry of Interior.

Article 60

Each council shall follow the procedures on the preparation, amendment or repeal of its bylaws.

Amendment to, or repeal of a bylaw of the council shall be decided by a bylaw of the council.

Procedures for preparation, amendment to and repeal of a bylaw of the council shall be determined by a sub-decree based on a request of the Minister of the Ministry of Interior.

Article 61

The council shall implement and enforce the implementation of all of its bylaws.

If necessary, the council may enforce the implementation of its bylaws through or in collaboration with justice police officers.

The justice police officers shall assist the council to enforce the implementation of the council's bylaw upon written request from the council.

Section 4 Meeting and Internal Rules of the Council

Article 62

The meeting for the council to take office shall be organized within a period of fourteen (14) days after the National Election Committee has officially announced the results of the council elections.

The Ministry of Interior shall assign an official to preside over the meeting for the council to take office.

Article 63

The chairperson of the council shall be chairperson of all council meetings.

Article 64

The chairperson of the council meetings shall have duties:

- To chair the council meeting without bias;
- To respect and implement laws and internal rules of the council meeting.

Article 65

In the event that the chairperson of the council meeting is absent, the councillor who is next in order on the same candidate list as the chairperson shall be selected to preside over the meeting.

In the event that the councillor who is next in order on the same candidate list with the chairperson is absent, the councillor who is on the top of the candidate list winning the second highest votes of the council shall be selected to preside over the meeting.

In the event that the councillor on the top of the candidate list winning the second highest votes is absent, the councillor who is next in order on the same candidate list shall be selected to preside over the meeting.

Article 66

All meetings of the council shall be valid only if the number of Councillors present in the meeting is not less than half of the total number of Councillors.

Every councillor who is present in the meeting shall have the right to cast one vote to approve any decision of the council.

The council shall approve bylaws or decisions by votes of more than half of the total members of the council.

Article 67

In event the numbers of votes are equal, the vote of the meeting chairperson shall be considered as decisive.

Article 68

The meetings of the council shall be conducted in public.

The council may also conduct confidential meetings.

The conduct of confidential meetings shall be determined by a guideline of the Minister of the Ministry of Interior.

Article 69

The meetings of the council shall be conducted in accordance with the internal rules of the various categories of council.

The Minister of the Ministry of Interior shall issue a guideline on the internal rule model that applies to the various categories of council.

Article 70

The first ordinary meeting of the council shall be organized not later than fifteen (15) days after the meeting organized for the council to take office.

Article 71

In its second meeting, the council shall take action to approve internal rules for its meetings in the form of bylaw.

The council may adopt the internal rule model for meetings as provided by the Ministry of Interior with or without change.

Article 72

The council shall respect the internal rules for its meetings.

Any decision made in contradiction to the internal rules of the council meeting shall be invalid.

Article 73

Councillors shall have freedom to express ideas in their council meeting.

No councillor shall be arrested, detained or subjected to any action or measure due to the expression of their ideas or their votes in the council meeting.

Article 74

The Capital, Provincial, Municipal, District and Khan councils shall conduct ordinary meetings within the area of its jurisdiction at least twelve (12) times each year.

The ordinary meeting of the Capital, Provincial, Municipal, District and Khan councils shall be conducted not less than twenty five (25) days or not more than thirty five (35) days after the previous ordinary meeting of the council.

Article 75

The council shall approve the calendar of its ordinary meetings for the period of twelve (12) months not later than its second ordinary meeting and for the next meetings in every twelve (12) months period by indicating dates and places.

Article 76

The council shall publicly and immediately disseminate the calendar of its ordinary meeting.

Article 77

The council may conduct extra-ordinary meetings within its jurisdiction as necessary to address any urgent or special issue.

Section 5
Illegal Conduct of the Council or Council Official*Article 78

Any actions or decisions of the council or councillor or committees or board of governors or Governor or official of the council that exceed the power of the council or councillor or committees or board of governors or Governor or official of the council shall be considered as illegal acts.

Article 79

Any action or decision that is illegal shall be invalid.

Article 80

Any expenditure which is made by the council or on behalf of the council to implement any activities or decisions that are illegal shall be considered as illegal expenditure.

Article 81

The Minister of the Ministry of Interior shall notify the council and governor in writing on any illegal action or decision made by the council or councillor or committees or board of governors or Governor or official of the council.

After receiving notification in writing from the Minister of the Ministry of Interior, the council or board of governors shall clarify to the Ministry within a one-month period.

The Minister of the Ministry of Interior shall reply within a one-month period if the Ministry considers that that act is illegal.

Article 82

Prior to the issuance of a bylaw or a decision or an agreement, the council or the board of governors may send a written request for comment from the Minister of the Ministry of Interior if they consider that the issues are sensitive or unclear.

The Minister of the Ministry of Interior shall reply within a one-month period after receiving that request.

Article 83

The Minister of the Ministry of Interior shall advise the council and board of governors on necessary measures for correcting the actions or decisions that were taken by the council or board of governors so that those actions or decisions become lawful.

Article 84

In the event that the council has already implemented illegal actions or decisions, the Minister of the Ministry of Interior shall instruct the council to take necessary measures within the framework of its authority to rectify the actions or decisions so that they become lawful within a period of one month.

The council shall disseminate immediately in public the instruction of the Minister of the Ministry of Interior regarding this matter within its jurisdiction.

Article 85

In the event that the council is unable to rectify its illegal actions or decisions within its authority, the council shall cancel those illegal actions or decisions in a council meeting and the cancellation shall be disseminated in public.

Any person or persons who have been adversely affected by, or have paid taxes or service charges because of illegal actions or decisions, may submit their claim to the council to provide compensation and pay back in full amount.

Any person or persons whose claim for compensation has been rejected or has not been paid by the council within a two month-period, that person may inform and make a complaint to the Minister of the Ministry of Interior to coordinate and solve the problem.

In the event that the person does not agree with the solution made by the Minister of the Ministry of Interior, that person has the right to file their complaint to the courts.

Article 86

Any expenditure or impact resulting from any illegal decision made by the council, or on behalf of that council, shall be compensated by the council within a one month-period.

Article 87

In the event that any illegal expenditure is made to carry out the decisions or actions of the council or any committee or board of governors which has been fully supported by the Councillors or members of board of governors, each councillor or each member of the board of governors shall be equally responsible for recovering such illegal expenditure in full amount.

In the event that any illegal expenditure is made not for the purpose of the implementation of the decisions or actions of the council or committees or board of governors, the specific councillor, governor or deputy governor or individual official who is responsible for those improper actions or decisions shall be responsible for compensating such an illegal expenditure in full amount.

Article 88

In necessary cases, the Minister of the Ministry of Interior may delegate authority to District councils to check the legality of Commune/Sangkat council performance based on the conditions provided in this Law and the Law on Administrative Management of Communes/Sangkats.

Section 6
Solution of Local Conflicts

Article 89

The council shall take appropriate actions to solve local conflicts within its jurisdiction.

Article 90

Local conflict is a private conflict between citizens in the jurisdiction of the same or different councils.

Article 91

Solution to conflict shall be based on written complaints of both or any parties to the conflict submitted to the council, where the party or parties permanently reside(s) in the jurisdiction of that council.

Article 92

The council shall mediate to solve local conflict to reach a solution that is acceptable by all parties to the conflict.

In event that any party to the conflict does not accept the proposed solution, the council shall advise the party on legal procedures for continuing to solve the conflict.

Article 93

When there is a request or a complaint raised by citizens under its jurisdiction, the council shall appropriately consider and address the request or complaint.

In the event that the request or complaint is within its jurisdiction, the council shall take action to address it and inform the citizens accordingly.

If the request or complaint is not within its jurisdiction, the council shall report it to the relevant ministries, institutions or councils for solution.

Article 94

In the mediation to solve local conflict, the council shall not make decisions on the following issues:

- Divorce;
- Domestic violence which is characterized as criminal or misdemeanor offences;
- Criminal or misdemeanor offences which are provided in the criminal code or in the framework of public order;
- Conflict being addressed by a court or having received a decision of a court;
- Conflict that has been assigned by law or the Royal Government to a specific institution or mechanism to coordinate and address.

Article 95

Procedures for local conflict solution shall be based on laws or sub-decrees.

Section 7

Special Provisions of the District Council, Commune Council and Sangkat Council within the District

Article 96

The District council shall establish, promote and sustain democratic development within its district.

Article 97

In order to establish, promote and sustain democratic development in the district, the District council shall:

- Assist each Commune and Sangkat council to establish, promote and sustain democratic development;
- Work together with the Commune and Sangkat councils to promote public participation in the governance process within the District, Commune and Sangkat;
- Find out and respond to the needs within its district and requests from the Commune and Sangkat councils.

Article 98

The District council shall be accountable to the Commune and Sangkat councils and to all citizens within its district for its choices, decisions and performance, including the impacts of those choices, decisions and performance.

Article 99

The District council shall conduct consultations with Commune and Sangkat councils and other stakeholders to assess the capacity of the Commune and Sangkat councils on a regular basis and provide capacity building and training to the Commune and Sangkat councils and their staff members as well as raise public awareness of citizens in each Commune and Sangkat on a regular basis in order to establish, promote and sustain democratic development.

The Minister of the Ministry of Interior shall be responsible for the quality of the capacity building in accordance with this Law and the Law on Commune/Sangkat Administrative Management.

Article 100

The District council and the relevant Commune and Sangkat councils shall integrate identified strategies, programs and activities for responding to the needs and requests of the Commune and Sangkat councils into the three-year (03) rolling investment program and five-year (05) development plan of the District, Communes and Sangkats, including the annual budget plan and medium term expenditure plan of the district and communes.

Article 101

Following consultations with the Commune and Sangkat councils, the District council shall facilitate and enhance the administrative capacity or administrative resources necessary for Commune and Sangkat councils to enable them to have adequate and permanent administrative capacity or administrative resources to:

- Promote and sustain democratic development or perform one or more necessary functions and duties;
- Manage administrative capacity and administrative resources including personnel, equipment, assets and necessary materials.

Article 102

The arrangements to enhance the administrative capacity or administrative resources of the Commune / Sangkat councils can include sharing among two or more councils some or all necessary personnel, equipment, materials and assets.

Article 103

In the event that a District council has made efforts to coordinate and improve the administrative capacity or administrative resource of the Commune / Sangkat council but the Commune / Sangkat council is still incapable of fulfilling its basic and necessary duties or incapable of sufficiently promoting democratic development, the District council shall consult with the Commune / Sangkat council to report immediately this matter in writing to the Minister of the Ministry of Interior.

The above report should include relevant recommendations to resolve the issues.

Article 104

In the event that the Minister of the Ministry of Interior agrees with the District council report, the Minister of the Ministry of Interior shall consult with the District council and relevant Commune / Sangkat council in order to support capacity building to that Commune / Sangkat council so that it is able to effectively promote and sustain democratic development.

Article 105

The organization and execution of the secretariat shall be determined by a sub-decree based on a request of the National Committee for Democratic Development at Sub-National Level.

Article 198

The National Committee for Democratic Development at Sub-National Level shall conduct meetings at least once every two months.

Article 199

The National Committee for Democratic Development at Sub-National Level shall approve its own internal rules.

Article 200

Based on various provisions of this Law, the National Committee for Democratic Development at Sub-National Level shall review the responsibilities and functions of ministries, institutions, departments, units and authorities at all levels to identify functions to be transferred to sub-national councils.

The identification and transfer of functions shall be followed by:

- The transfer of resources including revenue, finance, personnel, property, and capacity for managing and fulfilling the respective functions;
- The capacity building and empowerment to get access to the resources that are necessary for managing and fulfilling each function including revenue, finance, personnel, property, and capacity;
- The powers and duties to manage and perform all respective functions in line with the principles of local autonomy and local accountability to the maximum level.

Article 201

Prior to the transfer of functions and duties to the councils at sub-national administrations, the National Committee for Democratic Development at Sub-National Level shall ensure that national level ministries and institutions integrate their sub-national development plan and budget into the respective councils' development plans and budgets.

Article 202

The National Committee for Democratic Development at Sub-National Level shall ensure that this Law is implemented by the relevant ministries and institutions at national level, the line departments and units of the Royal Government at sub-national levels and councils at sub-national administrations.

Article 203

The National Committee for Democratic Development at Sub-National Level shall ensure that other policies, strategies, and reform programs are well aligned with this law.

Article 204

The National Committee for Democratic Development at Sub-National Level may provide recommendations directly to the Royal Government or any ministry or institution of the Royal Government on the formulation or amendment of other laws and regulations in order to make them consistent with this Law.

Article 205

The National Committee for Democratic Development at Sub-National Level may resolve or request a decision from the Royal Government on any inconsistency that occurs related to the implementation of this Law.

Article 206

Sub-committees of the National Committee for Democratic Development at Sub-National Level, relevant ministries and institutions of the Royal Government, line departments, units and councils at sub-national administrations have the responsibility to implement the decisions of the National Committee for Democratic Development at Sub-National Level.

Article 207

In the event that any ministry or institution of the Royal Government does not follow the decisions of the National Committee for Democratic Development at Sub-National Level, the National Committee for Democratic Development at Sub-National Level shall report to the head of the Royal Government for decision.

Article 208

In the event that any council at sub-national administration level does not follow its decisions, the National Committee for Democratic Development at Sub-

National Level shall propose to the Ministry of Interior to implement procedures defined by this Law.

Article 209

The National Committee for Democratic Development at Sub-National Level shall prepare written reports on the implementation of this Law for submission to the Royal Government at least once every six months.

Article 210

The National Committee for Democratic Development at Sub-National Level shall have its own budget for the implementation of this Law.

The budget of the National Committee for Democratic Development at Sub-National Level shall be included in the annual budget plan of the Ministry of Interior.

Article 211

In order to implement this Law, the National Committee for Democratic Development at Sub-National Level shall approve:

- Medium term and long term national programs to support the implementation of this law which will be updated annually;
- Its annual workplan and budget based on the national program;
- An annual report on the implementation of this Law.

Article 212

The National Committee for Democratic Development at Sub-National Level is entitled to receive funding and support from development partners and other sources to effectively carry out its duties.

Section 2
Functions

Article 213

The Royal Government, the National Committee for Democratic Development at Sub-National Level and all councils at sub-national administration levels shall together achieve the common objective of establishing, promoting and sustaining democratic development.

Article 214

Each category of the councils shall contribute to achieving this common objective through effectively managing, supervising and implementing functions transferred to them in accordance to this Law.

Article 215

In the review of functions of the ministries, institutions, departments, units and the authorities at all levels, the National Committee for Democratic Development at Sub-National Level shall give priority to issues related to the following sectors:

- Agriculture;
- Education;
- Forestry, natural resources and environment;
- Health, nutrition and services for people including other needs of women, men, youth, children, vulnerable groups and indigenous people;
- Industry and support to economic development;
- Land use;
- Electricity production and distribution;
- Water management;
- Infrastructure and facilities that are necessary to support and facilitate these responsibilities; and
- Particular or special needs for the Capital, Province, Municipality, District, Khan, commune and Sangkat including tourism, historical sites and cultural heritage.

Article 216

For the review of the functions and responsibilities provided in Article 215 of this law, priority shall be given to the review of basic and necessary functions which directly impact on poverty reduction and livelihood improvement of the people.

Article 217

The purpose of the review is to identify those functions and responsibilities that shall be transferred to Commune council, District council, Municipal council, Provincial council and Capital council and those functions that shall be retained at national level.

The above review shall ensure that functions and responsibilities are transferred along with the transfer of appropriate resources which are necessary for the management and supervision of those functions and responsibilities.

Article 218

The transfer of functions and resources shall be carried out with planning, phasing, rationale, coordination, consultation, transparency and with minimal disruption to the ongoing operations of the Royal Government and the support of relevant stakeholders.

Article 219

The national strategies and programs shall be consistent with the functions and resources to be transferred in accordance with this Law.

Article 220

In order to appropriately transfer functions to each category of the councils, first these functions shall be reviewed based on the following principles:

- Relevant to jurisdiction of the council;
- Manageable and practical for the council's jurisdiction;
- Beneficial and useful for residents within the council's jurisdiction;
- Major impact within the council's jurisdiction.

Based on the above principles, the National Committee for Democratic Development at Sub-National Level shall provide a clear justification for the transfer of functions to the appropriate administrative level based on the principle of effectiveness.

Article 221

In the transfer of functions as provided in Articles 215, 217 and 220 of this Law, the National Committee for Democratic Development at Sub-National Level shall determine which functions are obligatory, which functions are permissive and which functions are to be assigned or which functions are to be delegated.

Section 3 Obligatory Functions

Article 222

Obligatory functions are functions defined by law or royal decree or sub-decree or legal instruments based on requests of the National Committee for Democratic Development at Sub-National Level, ministries and institutions of the Royal Government.

The law or royal decree or sub-decree or legal instruments as said above shall indicate clearly the obligatory requirements to manage and perform the functions including the framework and timeframe for implementing standards and procedures.

Article 223

Where an obligatory function is managed and performed by a category of the councils, and does not requires a permanent contribution from the relevant ministry or institution of the Royal Government, but that ministry or institution transfers resources to the councils to manage, supervise and implement that function, that function shall be assigned to the appropriate council.

Article 224

Where an obligatory function is performed by any appropriate council, but it requires a permanent contribution from the concerned ministry or institution of the Royal Government, even though the necessary resources for management and implementation of that function have been transferred, that function shall be delegated to the appropriate council.

Article 225

The assignment or delegation of obligatory functions shall promote democratic development at the sub-national administrations by:

- Providing maximum authority to the respective council so that it can manage and perform that function;
- Requiring the respective council to manage and perform the function with responsiveness and accountability to the citizens in its jurisdiction.

Article 226

For a delegated obligatory function, the respective council shall be accountable to the relevant government ministry or institution in accordance with the need for that delegation.

Section 4 Permissive Function

Article 227

A permissive function is not an obligatory function.

Article 228

Permissive functions shall be assigned to the appropriate councils.

Article 229

The council shall continue to administer and implement a permissive function after a government ministry or institution has transferred it to the council.

Article 230

The council shall administer and implement the permissive function to the maximum extent possible based on the capacity and resources that are transferred to the council.

In the event that a permissive function has not become an obligatory function, the council may request the National Committee for Democratic Development at Sub-National Level to change or terminate the administration and implementation of that function.

All resources that have been transferred to the council to administer the permissive function shall be the resources of the council and the council may manage those resources in accordance with provisions of this Law.

Article 231

A council shall have the right to decide on ways to administer and implement a permissive function in accordance with standards and procedures that are set out in existing laws or royal decree or sub-decrees or regulations.

Article 232

In the event that the council decides to administer and implement the permissive function that has not previously been administered and implemented by a government ministry or institution, the standards, procedures and resources required to administer and implement that function shall be decided by the council at its discretion.

Section 5
Assignment and Delegation of FunctionsArticle 233

The transfer of function to any appropriate council by assignment or by delegation shall be based on the principle of permanent assignment or delegation and not temporary assignment or delegation.

Article 234

The transfer of resources necessary to any appropriate council to administer and implement any function shall be based on the principle of permanent transfer and not temporary transfer.

Article 235

Before any obligatory function or permissive function that has been previously administered by a government ministry or institution is transferred by assignment or delegation to any appropriate council, the National Committee for Democratic Development at Sub-National Level shall determine the resources required and the capacity development necessary for the council to continue to administer and implement that function.

Article 236

In order to administer and implement functions effectively and sustainably, the National Committee for Democratic Development at Sub-National Level or government ministries or institutions may assign or delegate functions to two or more councils with the requirement that the councils share certain resources, including skilled personnel, among them, and jointly contribute own resources.

Section 7 Management of Assets of Sub-national Administrations

Article 254

In order to ensure that the councils are able to perform their functions and duties in accordance with this Law, it is necessary to enable the councils to receive the necessary assets.

Assets of the sub-national administrations include the state assets that are transferred to the administrations and the assets that it acquired by their own means. These assets are called as assets of the sub-national administrations.

Article 255

The state assets that are transferred to sub-national administrations are the assets that the sub-national administrations can manage, utilize and generate revenues from.

Sub-national administrations shall maintain and protect the assets that the state transferred to them and the sub-national administrations shall have no right to sell or transfer ownership and transfer the utilization without the agreement from the Minister of the Ministry of Interior and the approval from the Minister of the Ministry of Economy and Finance.

The monitoring, management, administration and utilization of the state assets and the assets generated by the sub-national administrations themselves shall be determined by Law on the Financial Regime and Management of Assets of the Sub-national Administrations.

Article 256

The National Committee for Democratic Development at Sub-National Level shall coordinate the transfer of assets concurrently with the review of responsibilities

according to the conditions of this Law, and shall be carried out with phases, rationale, consultation and transparency.

Article 257

In the transfer of assets, the National Committee for Democratic Development at Sub-National Level may decide that two or more councils will share the assets to be transferred to enable those councils to effectively perform their duties.

Article 258

In the event that the council receives one or more functions but the necessary assets are insufficient or do not exist to administer that function, the council shall have to receive financial resources to address its needs.

Article 259

The transfer of assets shall be carried out under a legal document, regarding the transfer of ownership, to the concerned council or councils if such assets have an ownership certificate.

In the event that any asset does not have an ownership certificate, the National Committee for Democratic Development at Sub-National Level shall coordinate with the concerned government ministry or institution which manages that asset and issue a decision indicating:

- The assets that shall be transferred;
- The category of council that will receive the assets;
- The specific council within this category that shall receive the assets;
- The government ministry, institution or line department/unit at sub-national level that shall hand over the asset to the council; and
- The effective date on which the assets shall be handed over to the council.

The above decision may transfer one or more assets and may transfer all assets of a specific type.

Article 260

In the event that a government ministry, institution or line department/unit at sub-national level does not hand over the assets as instructed in the decision by the National Committee for Democratic Development at Sub-National Level or does not prepare proper legal documentation for transferring ownership of the assets, the council shall immediately report to the National Committee for Democratic Development at Sub-National Level in writing.

Article 261

The council shall prepare a plan for maintenance of assets of the sub-national administration to be included in the annual budget to ensure the efficiency and effectiveness of management and utilization of the assets.

The council shall prepare the inventory of assets of the sub-national administration which will be updated every year.

Section 8 Personnel

Article 262

In order to ensure that councils are able to administer and implement functions and duties transferred to them by this Law, the National Committee for Democratic Development at Sub-National Level and government ministries and institutions shall review and redeploy personnel to the council concurrently with the transfer of functions and duties for the purpose of establishing a body of personnel of sub-national administration.

Article 263

The National Committee for Democratic Development at Sub-National Level shall be responsible for defining the policy and strategy for ensuring the proper review and redeployment of personnel.

Article 264

The National Committee for Democratic Development at Sub-National Level shall define the category of personnel for councils and define measures to review and redeploy these personnel to ensure that the number of civil servants does not increase.

The management of civil servants who work with councils at sub-national levels shall be defined by a separate statute for personnel of sub-national administrations.

Article 265

The review and redeployment of personnel shall be carried out based on the following principles:

- in consistence with the review of functions and responsibilities set out in this Law;
- in a manner that is consultative, well planned and programmed, rational,, transparent and in accordance with this Law;
- in a manner that takes into consideration the interests of both the councils and the personnel concerned.

Article 266

In the event that a function or a duty is transferred to a council, the personnel who administer and implement that function or duty shall also be redeployed to that council;

Article 267

The National Committee for Democratic Development at Sub-National Level may decide to review and redeploy individual or several personnel by type and category of position.

The redeployed personnel shall have terms of reference, salaries and other benefits or incentives which are not less favorable than their prevailing terms of reference, salaries, benefits or incentives.

Article 268

In the event that a function and duty is transferred to a council, but the necessary personnel are insufficient or do not exist, the council then shall have to receive financial resources in order to recruit personnel to perform the work as required.

Article 269

If the review and redeployment of personnel require any individual civil servant to change his/her place of residence and that individual civil servant does not agree with the redeployment, he/she shall provide notification in writing within one (01) month after receiving the decision on the redeployment.

A civil servant who does not agree with the decision on the redeployment may continue as a civil servant within his/her government ministry or institution but shall be assigned with different duties.

Article 270

The decision on the redeployment of a civil servant will come into effect when the National Committee for Democratic Development at Sub-National Level and the government ministry or institution where the civil servant is employed issue a decision notifying:

- the civil servant who is to be redeployed;
- the council to which the civil servant will be redeployed;
- the date on which the civil servant is expected to commence their new assignment.

The above decision may redeploy one or several civil servants as necessary.

Article 271

The Ministry of Economy and Finance shall transfer the salary, incentive and other benefits of the civil servant who has been redeployed to the concerned council starting from the date that the civil servant commences their assignment with the concerned council.

Article 272

The council shall report immediately to the National Committee for Democratic Development at Sub-National Level in the event that any redeployed civil servant to the council fails to commence his/her work in accordance with the decision on the redeployment.

Article 273

Formalities and procedures for personnel redeployment shall be defined by a sub-decree based on a request of the National Committee for Democratic Development at Sub-National Level.
